Letter from the Managing Director

RIISING ABOVE ALL CIRCUMSTANCES

This month I would like for all of us to focus on the victory that has been attained for us by Christ dying on the cross and Him overcoming death through His resurrection.

What does this mean for us? Believing that the Lord Jesus Christ rose from the dead is essential for the Children of God. Merely recognizing that He died for our sins is not enough; we must accept His resurrection to receive eternal life.

Our debt was paid by Christ, but His sacrifice on the cross would mean nothing if He was powerless over death.

By overcoming death and evil, the Lord made our salvation possible. As a result of all of this, we have the ability to rise above difficult circumstances. Christ's resurrection demonstrated He was capable of removing sin and its penalty.

In accepting Christ as dead, we would have to accept the opposite - that believers are still sinful. And death is an inevitable consequence of sin. Consequently, a person who denies Christ's eternal nature looks toward devoid of the future.

Those who reject resurrection are slaves to the present, with no sense of purpose or hope in life, instead of enjoying Christian liberty and anticipating heaven.

Career, family, and good works can offer a brief pleasure, but they cannot compare to the kind of joy that comes from knowing we are right with the Lord and working in His will.

Resurrection is not a denominational issue or a matter for theological debate. We either believe Christ rose from the dead and ascended to heaven or we do not.

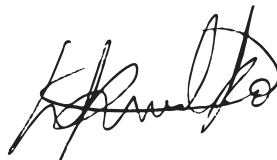

By rejecting His victory over death, we deny ourselves a place in eternity. As long as we believe the truth, Paul assures us that we will be saved. (John 11:25-26)

As we celebrate Passover, I would like to remind all of us that Christ died so we can have life in abundance and that we could be able to yet again have the relationship we had with God before the fall of man.

This shows how much God loves us. Let us, therefore, consider Christ in everything we do.

God loves you, and so does TBN.

Yours faithfully

TESTIMONIES OF VICTORY

ZINTLE MAGWAZA

My 8 months old son was in a situation where he couldn't breathe, was blind, deaf, brain dead and all his organs were failing. I was crying for my baby. I kept calling the TBN Prayer Lines and a prayer consultant prayed for me, more than once, and he told me to read Psalm 91 and always apply the blood of Jesus over my child.

The doctors called me in the hospital, and I was told to sit with my baby. I got next to him, read Psalm 91 and applied the blood of Jesus over him. As I was reading, he responded and opened his eyes...praise God. Now he is alive and well.

He plays and he is able to hear and see. Thanks to the TBN Prayer Team. I give all the glory to Jesus. AMEN.

BULELWA GCAKAZI

After 2 years of being unemployed, I was frustrated and kept praying, kept sending WhatsApp messages and I called the TBN Prayer Lines for prayers. Thank God that I am working now, God is great.

NAOMI

I want to thank Master Jesus for healing my son who got sick when he arrived in Ghana. He was forced to be taken back to SA and he was in ICU. I called TBN and we prayed and continued praying. Now my son David is 100% healed. Isn't God great? Amen.

UPDATE

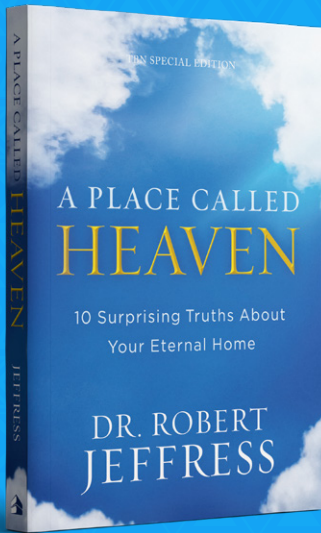

The TBN team visited the building to pray over it.

This is after it was declared that the building has been transferred into the name of TBN Africa.

It was such an incredible time of worshipping and praising the Lord together as we took ownership of the building.
